The cheapest place in town for Boots and Shoes is G. W. Payne's.

T. B. McElhiney had some improvements made this week at his home on Chouteau avenue.

WHY WE SELL SO MANY OF "OUR GEM OAK"

Heating Stoves. Because they are provided with a large ash pan inside the ash box (not on the outside). Because they are guaranteed to hold fire forty-eight hours.

Because they are the handsomest stove on the market excepting none.

Because we sell them at hard time prices.

Because there is no brand of Stoves in Baxter Springs that can equal them for Beauty, Durability or Workmanship. Call and see us before purchasing.

Respy, McELHINEY & SON.

I sell the original Round Oak heater. You might as well say brass is better than pure gold as to compare any heating stove sold in Baxter to the Round Oak, sold only by me. J. J. FRIBLEY.

It is whispered that several of our bald-headed citizens went to Galena yesterday evening to see Duncan Clark's "French High Kickers."

Sheet Steel Stove Pipe at McELHINEY & SON'S.

We have received a great many compliments from our friends (and we have lots of them) on the big edition of the NEWS last week.

We now have the largest and best assorted stock of goods we have ever carried in Baxter Springs, and we are selling more goods at closer margins than ever before. J. J. OSBORN.

Buckwheat Flour and Maple Syrup at CHAS. F. NOBLE'S.

Two mail bags were required for the Melrose and Keelville mail Tuesday, while only one has been used before. The big edition of the NEWS caused it.

Don't fail to call at Mrs. W. W. Jones' and see her elegant line of Winter Millinery goods. Everything new.

We have the handsomest and largest assortment of holiday goods ever brought to Baxter and will sell them cheaper than you ever dared dream of. McFADDEN & PRICE.

WE still continue to do the business of the town. WHY? Because we have the largest stock, best quality and sell for less money than any other house in the city. J. M. COOPER.

Col. March and the railroad mail agents kicked a little about the big edition of the NEWS, but they had to take their medicine.

Mrs. Wm. Callis and John Callis have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Detroit and Milan, Mich.

Our ad. in the big edition of the Baxter Springs NEWS was a trade winner. The people have found out where they get the best goods for the least money, and our sales increase daily. Come on. We have plenty of room, good fires and it's no trouble to show goods. J. M. COOPER.

B. L. McKinney of Carthage was in the city yesterday morning on business.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.
Married, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Duncan, No. 330 West Ninth street, Kansas City, Mo., on Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, their daughter, Miss Alta Duncan, to Mr. Walter J. Naylor of this city.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the folding doors were opened and the bridal party, preceded by Dr. T. P. Haley, pastor of the First Christian church of Kansas City, Mo., followed by Mr. Gill Duncan as best man and Miss Leila Edwards of Butler, Mo., as bridesmaid, took their places and after a short, but impressive ceremony, were pronounced husband and wife.

After receiving the hearty congratulations of the guests the newly wedded pair with the assembled party partook of elegant refreshments.

A large number of guests were present both from the city and at a distance. Many letters and telegrams were received expressing best wishes and congratulations. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Naylor arrived in this city Thursday morning on the 5:14 train and will be at home to their friends after December 10.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Naylor are well and favorably known in this city and need no words of commendation from us. The NEWS joins a large circle of friends in wishing the happy couple smooth sailing on the matrimonial sea.

STEVE BLANCHARD INJURED.
On Monday while S. A. Blanchard was riding through the woods near his home south of this city his horse stumbled and fell, throwing him over the animal's head. His stomach struck a rotten stump which broke off and his horse fell on top of him. Steve was severely bruised about the body and legs, but was able to be up town Thursday.
